Dear Mr. Luhrs:

I have your letter of 6 January and I note that on a previous occasion I sent you my autograph. However, it is a pleasure for me to send you another autograph in response to your request.

Your kind comment about my work here is indeed appreciated.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

May I first express personal appreciation for the splendid service which you have rendered in your official capacity of this administration, during extremely trying times.

Because we maintain an historic display of personalized materials of each administration, we are wondering if we might be privileged to receive a card, letter, or photo, signed for this purpose. Your consideration will be lastingly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

THE LINCOLN LIBRARY
